RESPONSIBILITIES AND EXPECTATIONS

1. Pack carefully using a checklist. Make sure you have all of your stuff!!!
2. No personal coolers are allowed on the bus.
3. Observe all laws and band policies relating to the consumption of alcohol. If you are of age, do not wander the halls of the hotel with alcoholic beverages.
4. Please understand that if you are unable to perform, or if your performance level is diminished due to poor decision-making, your membership status will be placed in jeopardy.
5. No smoking on the bus, in the hotel, or in uniform.
6. Have a great time at the hotel, but not at the expense of others who are trying to sleep. DO NOT WANDER THE HALLS!
7. Support the team as hard as you can. Refrain from taunting or personal attacks.
8. Don’t allow yourself to be baited by opposing fans into saying or doing something foolish. Please let a staff member deal with these people rather than taking matters into your own hands.
9. Absolutely no profanity in uniform.
10. Please travel in groups of three or more at all times, especially at night.
11. It takes a long time for us to move from point A to point B. Allow extra time for elevators, etc. to avoid being left behind.
12. Make sure that your entire room is awake and out of bed each day. Don’t allow your friends to sleep in.
13. In the event of unlawful misconduct, the individual is subject to local police jurisdiction and may be subject to university disciplinary action. In the event of unacceptable behavior, the individual is subject to immediate membership disqualification. Additionally, you will be expected to reimburse the University for your portion of the travel expenses if you are sent home early.

ALWAYS REMEMBER!

We are traveling as members of the largest and most visible student group in the Oklahoma State University family. Unlike when we travel as private citizens, our appearance, words, and actions represent and reflect upon the hundreds of thousands of people associated with our band program, university, and state. It is the responsibility of each and every one of us to make certain that everything we do and say reflects positively on these entities while maintaining the tradition of excellence expected of us.

HAVE A GREAT TRIP!

Trip Policy

All rules concerning rehearsals and game day policies still apply. Students are expected to read itineraries and be on time for all events. Roll will be taken only when the band leaves Stillwater. Any student missing a bus or plane will be expected to meet the band at its next destination at their own expense.

You will receive a per diem on this trip. The amount is still to be determined, but it will be more than adequate to cover all meal costs.

While staying in the hotel, members are expected to stay in a room and not congregate in the hallways. We are sharing this hotel with other people and MUST be quiet and respectful guests.
